

Art In The Park

Shorey Park in Bridgton, Maine.

To everyone's delight, Art in the Park, held in Bridgton's Shorey Park was held on a beautiful, sunny Saturday, July 17. The crowd was especially jovial as they enjoyed a hot, but breezy, summer day while visiting the many talented artists as they strolled through the park, many carrying the purchase of "just what they always wanted". Visitors lounged on park benches or on the grass as they listened to music and enjoyed their lunch.
